

PRAYER & PRAISE DECEMBER 2016

Thursday 1st Praise the Lord! Two 40ft shipping containers are in Cambodia. A third 40ft is on the way to Thailand. What wonderful sandgroper's generosity.

Friday 2nd We were hoping we could send a fourth container perhaps a 20ft but we were short by a few pallets. Everyone prayed "Lord we need enough money to fill a 4th container. A senior lady rang just after the prayers and sent a very generous cheque- so that enough boxes could be made to send a 4th! [And a 40ft] Please send a prayer of heartfelt thanks to people who obey God's prompting. [Don't know exact total as yet but will inform you as soon as possible.]

Saturday 3rd PTL that we may reach or even be slightly higher than last year's total.

Sunday 4th Romans 14:19 {NIV}"Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification."

Monday 5th Pray for the young men in Awaken Church who willingly and faithfully pack the shipping containers after work. Pray for their church to increase in numbers and good health for everyone. [ChangSha appreciates their muscle strength.]

Tuesday 6th PTL! Tarryn Valance and a cousin walked into the warehouse recently with a pile of boxes from a Morley Church. [You may remember how Tarryn was in a horrific car crash up North. Every bone in her body was broken and her life was touch and go] we were all jumping for joy to see her. She has many scars and back pain from discs that were removed. However she is very chirpy and working as a nurse in Narrogin.

Wednesday 7th Do pray for little Hannah that she will not lose her sight. Pray for complete healing. [Refer Nov.7th]

Thursday 8th PTL that Michael [our fork lifter and car manoeuvrer] has recovered really well from his operation and is back on board.

Friday 9th Prayer is requested for an unborn baby. Pray that his head will grow to the correct size in the womb. The doctor is concerned for his mental capabilities.

Saturday 10th PTL for the privilege we have to pray together every morning tea time. We have seen answers to these prayers.

Sunday 11th Psalm 133:1 [NIV] "How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity."

Tuesday 13th PTL for Kerry and all her tagging of our sewers' garments. The tags were Kerry's brainwave to make easy access on the pods. {Kerry has the tag machine} e.g. 5-9 girls made in WA. The children know it is new by the tag.

Wednesday 14th Pray for the Prayer Coordinators who prepare and present a positive message at morning tea time. Pray that they will always bring the right message for volunteers on a particular day.

Thursday 15th PTL for our country volunteers who faithfully prepare boxes each year. We have a new year round volunteer application from the Cowaramup area. Surfside Christian Outreach in Margaret River is the supporting church.

INSPIRING STORIES DECEMBER 2016

I asked our volunteers what they enjoyed when they checked a box for processing.

I enjoy seeing school supplies beautifully packed in a pencil case, along with a thick exercise or notebook. I imagine the child using them with happiness.

I enjoy seeing little surprises packed in a corner, or in a piece of clothing, or small bag.

I love seeing the photos of people and remember the child who kept stroking her photo.

Oh, the long lasting gifts such as sewing kits or real tools for boys, with nuts and bolts.

Seeing a harmonica...how do you know if he/she couldn't turn out to be a musician?

I get great pleasure admiring the beautifully sewn clothes and carry bags.

I imagine the child playing with a skipping rope for the first time and giggling.

When I see a hairbrush it reminds me how much the children shout with glee when they use it.

Some other interesting and inspiring observations.

A competition was held for the Upper Primary at Ursula Frayne Catholic College. The lucky class who won would receive funds to have a super duper party. The class who won, immediately said," we don't need a party, let's make up more boxes for the children who don't have anything."

"I look forward to the devotion during morning tea time. It makes me think. I value it.

I feel needed, loved and accepted when I volunteer here.

Prayer has changed my circumstances. I've never heard so many prayers said before!

Do you realise the impact OCC has on lives here in WA- as we know we are doing something worthwhile.

Without OCC I would not have a purpose in life.

This is my church. I call it The Warehouse Church.

When roads rage driver cuts me off on my way here....I'd love to follow him to his destination and wrap his car up in pink shrink wrap.

Like the widow's oil that never ran out....our red donor crate is no longer emptied and sorted, than it is full again! WA folk –you are wonderful.
