

Mothering Our BOYS

A guide for anyone
raising boys

Join one of Australia's favourite parenting authors and host of The Good Enough Dad Podcast as she explores the power of parenting our precious boys in a warm, firm, fair and fun way from birth to adulthood.

Despite the name of this seminar it is useful for all parents (mums and dads), carers and educators of boys (birth to late teens), to help build a better understanding of the importance of cooperative intimate relationships.

In her light-hearted way, Maggie offers insights and practical tips for understanding our boys and ensuring they will grow up to become respectful, responsible and loving good men.
