WELCOME TO SUMAA!

SAWATDII KHA / SAWATDII KHRAP

We hope you had a great time studying with us!

Welcome to Sumaa Language and Culture Institute's first newsletter. We plan to send out a monthly newsletter to keep in touch with our students and to let you know about our news, what events we're running at Sumaa, any special offers and discounts that are available, our latest language-learning tips, and much, much more. We hope you don't mind us staying in touch with you through the newsletter, but do let us know if you don't want to receive these emails.

We always love to hear comments, suggestions, and feedback, so please also feel free to contact us at sumaa48@gmail.com.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Let's make a krathong together!

Sumaa is hosting an online workshop on "How to Make a DIY Krathong" on Friday 19th November, 2021, so now you can celebrate Loy Krathong with us by making your own float. We'll send you the banana stalk, banana leaf, flowers, nails, incense and candle you need to make your krathong (only for students who live in Sathorn, Silom and Sukhumvit areas, I'm afraid), and then we'll assemble it together via Zoom (free of charge).

If you're free and you want to join us, please register at

TIPS

Thai people make Krathongs to show respect to the goddess of the river called Phra Mae Khongkha. We also make wishes when we float them in the river. Common wishes are as follows :

ขอให้มีความสุขมากขึ้น มีปัญหาต่างๆ น้อยลงในปีที่จะมาถึงนี้
 "I wish for more happiness and less problems for the coming year."

ขอให้ครอบครัวของฉันมีความสุข สุขภาพแข็งแรงและเจริญรุ่งเรือง

"I wish my family joyful, healthy and prosperous."

ขอให้ฉันประสบความสำเร็จในทุกสิ่งทุกอย่างที่ฉันทำ

"I wish myself success with everything I do."
