Cooper Tire Enters into Exclusive Agreement with Tire Group International to Distribute Mastercraft Brand in Central America and Caribbean

FINDLAY, OHIO, JULY 26, 2012 – Cooper Tire & Rubber Company (NYSE:CTB) today announced it has reached a two-year, exclusive agreement with Tire Group International (TGI) to distribute Mastercraft brand tires throughout Central America and the Caribbean. As part of the agreement, which runs through December 2014, TGI will also provide marketing and sales support for Mastercraft in the form of product promotions and dealer training.

"We are excited to bring TGI's expertise and reach to the Mastercraft distribution network in these important markets," said Phil Caris, Vice President of Sales for Cooper. "This new distribution agreement is a natural extension of our existing relationship with TGI. With their base in Miami and knowledge of Central America and the Caribbean, TGI is well positioned to provide existing and future customers an opportunity to expand market share with Mastercraft in these regions."

Orlando Delgado, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Tire Group International, added, "TGI has a longstanding and successful alliance with Cooper Tire. Our entire organization is excited about the opportunity to grow the premium Mastercraft brand throughout the region."

TGI will also be a fill-in distributor for the Cooper brand in the Caribbean, allowing customers in the region who currently buy direct from Cooper the benefit of a quick source of supply when required.
