1. Prefectural University of Hiroshima

(1) Overview

Prefectural University of Hiroshima is a public university in Hiroshima Prefecture with about 2,600 students. It is known as one of the top public universities in the Chugoku, Shikoku and Kyushu areas, committed to "learning, high-quality research and training."

In Hiroshima Prefecture, two World heritage sites, the Atomic Bomb Dome and Itsukushima Shrine offer an additional educational experience from the perspectives of peace, culture and history in Japan. Currently, about 70 foreign students are enrolled at our University. Inbound exchange students are accepted every year. So far, we have produced and introduced many excellent foreign students to the world who have studied in a Japanese academic setting and the surrounding culture at the University. We look forward to interacting with you through our exchange programs.
