

Employee Benefits

Career Opportunity

Baker-Hopp & Associates is seeking an energetic and independent worker to fill a full-time Employee Benefits Account Manager opening. This position is perfect for someone that is looking to take the next step to in their career in employee benefits and manage small groups with groups of 50 employees and under.

Opportunity:

Become a member of a unique sales organization with a clear core purpose and strong core values.

You will be working with a flexible and supportive management team who appreciates hard work and dedication and gives proper recognition.

Compensation includes:

- Financial support for industry education
- Employee benefits including health insurance and 401(k) with employer match
- Short-term and long-term disability
- Life insurance

Ideal Candidate:

This position is for someone who is ready to utilize their skills and step into the world of account management; we are looking for team players who have the following characteristics:

- Has a thirst for learning
- Confident
- Pleasant and positive
- Curious and asks good questions
- A great listener
- Energetic and prepared
- Has the ability to follow through
- Strong problem solving skills
- Excellent attention to detail
- Able to work independently and multi-task
- Team player

Candidate must have qualifications in the following areas:

- 3+ years of employee benefits experience
- Health & Life License
- Strong communication skills, written and verbal
- Proficient with Microsoft Office products