OVERVIEW OF THE PROGRAM

If you are interested in learning more about yoga practice and perhaps teaching yoga someday, or are currently teaching and want to improve your teaching skills, you might consider enrolling in this unique training. What makes this training different from others offered in the Seattle area is that it is entirely based upon Iyengar Yoga. Other programs may require studying of Iyengar yoga books, or say they are teaching Iyengar Yoga Asana, but this is the only authorized training in Iyengar yoga in the Seattle area. Know the difference!

Iyengar Yoga is considered the Gold Standard of yoga systems. It has developed over the past 70 plus years by BKS Iyengar, author of Light on Yoga, Light on Pranayama, Light on The Yoga Sutras of Patanjali, and Light on Life.

Some of the hallmarks of Iyengar Yoga are the quality in the way the yoga is practiced, the emphasis on creating well aligned poses full of life, the subtle attention to detail which makes the yoga practice more beneficial and safer, inward, and meditative, the development of strength as well as flexibility, the skillful use of props to protect the student from practicing imbalanced poses, and overstretching. The practice is a bringing to life of Patanjali's Yoga Philosophy. Perhaps most important is the high standard of teaching skills of those trained Iyengar Yoga who go on to become Certified Iyengar Yoga Teachers

Yoga is indeed a subject requiring a lifetime of study and practice. This one year training gives the fundamentals for a life rich in yoga. Many Seattle area Yoga Teachers have taken teacher training from Richard

Most important four things for those taking this training:

30 Aim to make all the homework sessions. There will be opportunity to make-up at appropriate teacher trainings during this course and for 6 months afterwards.

40 Make it a priority to take at least one class per week from an instructor who is teaching Iyengar yoga. We have a large number of such classes at The Center For Yoga of Seattle.

50 Practice what you learn in the teacher training classes at home.

60 Keep up with the homework assignment readings.

STRUCTURE OF THE PROGRAM:

1. Iyengar Yoga Teacher Trainings are very much practice oriented. Simply put, those planning to teach Yoga Asanas, will need to be able to do those poses well. You do not need to be an advanced practitioner to be in the course. Almost everyone taking the training and practicing at home will experience a marked improvement in their yoga practice. Teacher training days are fun and often exhilarating with students learning new poses, new ways of practicing, and making breakthroughs. Their eye will develop as their understanding of what makes for a good yoga pose, and what common misalignments they should look for. Many students take this training to become more proficient in yoga, to learn more about the practice of the amazing Iyengar Yoga system. They appreciate the extra attention to their yoga practice that they receive in this training, and their mind opens to many possibilities of avenues to advancement.

2. The in depth study of each pose will be supplemented by lectures, discussions, and audiovisual teaching materials on the subjects of Anatomy For Yoga, Yoga Teaching Methodology, Iyengar Yoga Therapeutics, Yoga Philosophy, Understanding the Teacher/Student Relationship, Ethics of Teaching Yoga, the Business of Yoga

3. There will be many opportunities to practice teaching. Your ability to calmly receive valuable feedback from the instructor and your peers is essential.

4. Required Books to own and study:

Light on Yoga by B.K.S. Iyengar

Yoga: A Gem for Women by Geeta S. Iyengar

Yoga in Action: Preliminary Course by Geeta S. Iyengar

Yoga in Action: Intermediate Course 1 by Geeta S. Iyengar

Light on Pranayama by B.K.S. Iyengar

Light on the Yoga Sutras of Patanjali by B.K.S. Iyengar

Light on Life by B.K.S. Iyengar

Guidelines for Yoga Teachers by BKS Iyengar- available at the first class meeting for $16.45, not available online or in stores.

Other required books may be added to this list during training but the total cost of these additional books will not exceed $125.

5. The Center for Yoga of Seattle is a Yoga Alliance Registered Yoga School. Students who complete all homework assignments, attend 100% of the hours and pass quizzes will be qualified to register with Yoga Alliance to be Yoga Alliance Registered 200-hour Teachers, as well as receive a certificate of completion of the 200 Hour Yoga Teacher Training Course from the Center for Yoga of Seattle. There will not be a final exam. All tests can be retaken if needed.

6. Teacher Training hours missed can be made up for free during the length of the course and for six months after the last class meeting in Richard's other appropriate teacher trainings - evenings & weekends. After this 6-month period, make-ups are $25 per class hour for 6 months. After this one year period ends, there are no make-ups available.

7. This course can be excellent preparation for formal Iyengar Yoga certification assessment when supplemented by regular classes and/or weekend workshops and suitable home practice. There are other specific requirements to be allowed to go for assessment in addition to taking this course.

8. Students must sign an agreement acknowledging that they are not Iyengar Yoga Teachers nor are they certified Iyengar Yoga Teachers; they are yoga teachers who are studying with or have studied with a Certified Iyengar Yoga Teacher, and will not advertise that way unless and until they pass the first two National Iyengar Yoga Exams. Students may, however, teach yoga, provided they are ready to teach but they may not call their classes Iyengar Yoga.

9. Completing a formal apprenticeship with Richard is an invaluable way to develop your understanding of how teachers conduct their classes and develop their course. You will learn to help out in Richard's beginner yoga courses and become an assistant teacher. For the apprenticeship add-on to the basic tuition for the teacher training please see page 3. There are 3 options: a 100 hour apprenticeship ($1000), a 150 hour apprenticeship ($1500) and a 300 hour apprenticeship ($3000). Any of these options will help satisfy one of the key requirements for Iyengar certification.

10. In the event the start date of the course is postponed, the course will still end by August 27, 2020 and no refunds will be given.

The structure, dates, times and fees of the program are subject to change and revision without notice.

Former Teacher Training student's testimonials:

"My overall impression of the training was/ and is, really great. It exceeded my expectations. I think that the structure is intense, dynamic and a catalyst for deepening the practice of asana and all that unfolds from such rigorous training. I really love this level of discipline so for me it was heavenly..."

Katy Latta, 4 Week Teacher Training intensive.

"I was very impressed with the skill/knowledge level of the instructor. The program was intense and demanding but I loved every minute of it. I am the type of person to jump in with both feet and this gave me that opportunity. I am very grateful to have had the opportunity to participate in this immersion. I would highly recommend it to others."

Benay Doolittle, 4 Week Teacher Training intensive.

"I think this is a great program for anyone who wants an intensive introduction to Iyengar. I feel it really gives you an appreciation and admiration (respect) for the style and the history."

Shana Heatley, 4 Week Teacher Training intensive.

BUYER BEWARE:

Richard Schachtel has taught yoga in Seattle for 40 years and is a Certified Iyengar Yoga Teacher. As part of his commitment to keep up his training, Richard has studied for many years with Geeta and B.K.S. Iyengar at their reknown Institute in Puna, India where he receives training in Asana (yoga postures), Pranayama (breath control), Medical Therapeutic Yoga (working with students with injuries or medical conditions) and Yoga Philosophy. Richard completed in 2010, a 3 year training in Therapeutic Yoga in San Francisco.

Originally certified in 1974 as a Sivananda Yoga Teacher, Richard has been studying Iyengar Yoga since 1976 and was one of the first group of Americans to be certified as an Iyengar Yoga teacher in 1984. Today Richard enjoys teaching all the various levels of students including beginners, and supervises the yoga teacher training program as well as the apprenticeship program. Richard conducts a weekly special needs yoga class. Many of Seattle area's yoga teachers as well as students from around the U.S., Canada and abroad have received their teacher training in yoga with Richard.

Richard travels and gives guest Iyengar yoga workshops around the U.S. and has taught in Australia and in China in 2017. He has been on the teaching staff at several of the National Iyengar Yoga Conventions. Richard has worked for 20 years as an Assessor for the B.K.S. Iyengar Yoga Association of the United States to determine which teachers are qualified to earn the Iyengar yoga teaching credential. He is one of only 60 U.S. Iyengar Yoga Assessors.

Richard first trained in India with B.K.S. Iyengar in 1980 and made his 23rd yoga study trip to Puna, India to train with the Iyengars in December 2017. Richard continues to enjoy deepening his practice and sharing his many years of experience. Richard founded the Center in 1980 and continues to serve as the Director. He is Seattle's most Senior Iyengar Yoga Teacher.

Richard's teaching is marked by directness, clarity, exactness, intensity, and humor.
