

Two Bear Outfitters Refund Policy

In November 2010, Montana voters abolished the outfitter sponsored tag via I-161 voter initiative. While Two Bear Outfitters did not support or agree with this law, the fact is we have changed our policy to conform to it.

Effective immediately, Two Bear Outfitters will give booked clients a choice with regard to their down money if they failed to receive a tag via the draw. You may roll your down money into the next years hunt, or you may receive a check for the full amount back upon completion of the draw.

Refunds will only be distributed for medical emergencies and draw failure. We will require verification of such before a refund check is released.

Please understand when a hunt is booked, we are unable to book that spot. If somebody pulls out of their hunt, it cost us the money for that hunt if we cannot re-book your spot.

We hire staff, shoe horses, buy food and equipment, set up tents all based on our bookings. Cancellations are difficult to overcome for all outfitters.

Thank You,
Alan Carter,
