Safari Ranger:

This two-player piece challenges patrons to rescue the animals. The thrilling safari-themed videmp-tion game features a 42" LCD monitor and multiple levels of tension on the wheel mechanism for a realistic feel. Players press the button to launch the lasso, and then rotate the handle to wind in the animal — the bigger the animal, the higher the score. Rescue the endangered White Lion to win the Safari Bonus. There's also a four-player version.

Monkey Shake Down:

Players try to stop the monkeys from stealing bananas. They quickly push the balls to knock the monkeys down before they can reach the top of the tree. Defeat the Ape King to win the bonus. Features of this two-player game include three fun and entertaining levels, a 42" LCD monitor, a marquee display and attractive LED lights.

Jungle Claw:

This four-player, jungle-themed crane is suitable for children and families. The game features easy to control vertical and drop claw motion with rotating play-field, convenient toy storage and display area at the top and attractive surrounding LED lights.

Rocket School Bus:

Players of this one- or two-player game use the steering wheel or motorbike handlebars to steer along the road. They try to avoid the obstacles on the road, but pick up the gold coins for tickets/points. They press the central button to drive faster, and the first to cross the finish line wins. There's an optional 19" monitor with educational content.

Seaway Submarine:

The submarine kiddie ride replicates sea-like movements while players control the ride and learn to fish. If a fish is caught with the net, the name and a fact about the fish will appear on the screen. Features include a skin button that will change the color of the submarine, a net button that will throw a net to try and catch a fish, a speed button to speed up the submarine and a speak button to launch trumpets and cheers.
