

Second Avenue Subway Community Information Center

The MTA is opening a community information center along the Second Avenue Subway construction corridor where visitors can learn about the subway, its history, and its construction. Visitors can find project staff, regular programming, and biannual exhibits about different aspects of the Second Avenue Subway. Most of all, the center is a place to find construction information and bring concerns to the attention of project staff.

Grand Opening July 26th

1628 Second Avenue
between East 84th and 85th Streets

Hours

Monday: 10AM - 5PM

Tuesday: 10AM - 5PM

Wednesday: 1PM - 8PM

Thursday: 10AM - 5PM

Friday: 8AM - 3PM

Public transportation

4 5 6 to 86 Street
at Lexington Av

By bus: M15, M86, M98,
M101, M102, M103

 ADA accessible facility

A one-stop shop for the Second Avenue Subway construction project

Community outreach liaisons on hand to answer your questions

➔ HISTORY OF THE ➔ SECOND AVENUE SUBWAY

The first of biannual rotating exhibitions traces the visions, plans, and proposals for a Second Avenue Subway and the reasons why it was never built until now.

interactive exhibit

Wednesday evenings
at the CIC

Welcome to the CIC events

Transit Talks

Construction videos

www.mta.info/sas

wall display