City of New York Parks & Recreation has begun to officially recruit lifeguard candidates for our 2012 summer season and encouraging New Yorkers to try out for the Municipal Lifeguard Training Program. These are great jobs in public service that pay well and allow people to work outdoors and stay fit. The qualifying test for entry into the program is currently being offered at locations around the City. A complete list of testing sites is available on our website: www.nyc.gov/parks. The minimum qualifications to enter the course are that participants be at least 16 years of age at the time of employment, have eyesight no worse than 20/30 in one eye and 20/40 in the other, and be able to swim 50 yards in 35 seconds with proper form. Those qualifying will enter our training program consisting of swimming and rescue techniques, first-aid and CPR. The program is free; in fact, candidates who successfully complete the course will be paid for their time spent in training once they begin working as a lifeguard. First-year lifeguards will earn at least $13.57 an hour, and most lifeguards work a 6-day week, for a weekly salary of at least $651.36. If you have questions, please contact us at lifeguard@parks.nyc.gov

Legal Information for Families Today (LIFT) Family Legal Center offers free workshops, legal information and social work services to parents and grandparents involved in child support, custody, and visitation cases. All services are offered in English and Spanish at 350 Broadway, Room 400. For more information, please call (646) 613-9633 or visit www.LIFTonline.org.

Need a babysitter? A tutor for your child? Someone to walk your dog during the day? If so, consider hiring a Hunter student. Hunter Helpers is a service that matches up Hunter College students with residents in the neighborhood who need a helping hand. For more information, visit their website - www.hunter.cuny.edu/babysitting

The Day Care Council of New York, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization that provides families with child care information in all five boroughs of New York City, particularly infant and young toddler care.
